

Opus Healthcare Solutions

For over 20 years Opus Healthcare Solutions has been delivering clinical IT solutions to the healthcare industry through innovative technologies and motivated experts

Opus Healthcare Solutions, headquartered in Austin, TX, is a leading healthcare information technology (HCIT) provider with over 20 years of industry experience. By implementing the OpusClinicalSuite®, your hospital:

- Gets Physicians what they demand from any Internet connected device
- Improves patient safety through ADE avoidance
- Allows for better utilization and less duplication of services
- Reduces the length of stay
- Improves the quality of care through best practices
- Improves the ability to meet Joint Commission and HIPAA documentation and privacy requirements
- Saves money through automatic charge capture
- Improves outcomes through managed care plans
- Promotes best practices through incorporation of Evidence-based Medicine
- Improves the ability of every caregiver to deliver quality care
- Integrates data from disparate sources via XML and HL-7
- Can help meet a growing core measures requirement
- Can help with recruiting the best care givers and practitioners
- Saves lives by promoting the highest quality of care

Opus Healthcare Solutions, Inc.
Austin, TX

For the 5th consecutive year, Opus Healthcare Solutions has been named one of the Top 25 Software Developers in Austin (May, 2007), moving up from 6th to 4th place ranking.

Opus Healthcare Solutions and one of their clients, have won the CHIME (College of Healthcare Information Management Executives) Collaboration Award at the annual Fall CIO Forum. (November, 2004)

Opus Healthcare Solutions ranked one of the top 100 IT Companies by healthcare revenue (2004)

For more information regarding Opus Healthcare Solutions and the OpusClinicalSuite® visit us at www.opushealthcare.com or call (800)676-3371.

providing Clinical Freedom

Opus Healthcare Solutions at a Glance

State-of-the-Art Product Suite

- Second generation Web-based solution used by over 10,000 clinicians nationwide
- n-Tiered Linux designs
- AJAX protocol for quick and focused rendering of screens
- Recognized as one of the most experienced Web developers of complete clinical systems in the industry
- Hand-held PDA functionality as well as bedside wireless functionality

Highly Scalable Technology Platform

- Can operate efficiently as an ASP model in small hospitals
- Multi-site ability allows it to scale to very large installs
- Tiered design allows for targeted growth at the layer where demand is the highest
- Open architecture is easily integrated with other systems
- Fully-integrated Web-based design with no legacy components
- Applications share data effortlessly across all screens

Flexible Pricing Capabilities & Low-Cost Client Solutions

- Cost structure, software design, and rapid deployment ability allow for competitive pricing
- ASP solution allows for lower capital costs and faster installs due to leveraged hardware infrastructure and multi-site capability
- Sophisticated template builders allow for multiple workflows in different acute care settings without software customization

Aggressive Deployment Capabilities

- Highly process driven project management teams with high levels of competency and ability to deliver rapidly
- On-line interactive training tools that can track and measure training competence and utilization
- Pre-built templates allow for faster build times without software customizations

Highly Experienced Management Team

- Average of 15 years of industry experience
- Average Opus Healthcare employment of Senior Management is 10+ years
- Process driven management focused on the delivery of high quality products and service

Opus Healthcare Solutions, Inc.

12301 Research Blvd. • Bldg. IV, Suite 200 • Austin, TX 78759
Toll free 800.676.3371

For more information on Opus Healthcare Solutions go to:

www.opushealthcare.com